London, June 14th 2007 - PENTAX U.K. today announces the release of 5,000 limited-edition PENTAX K10D Camera Packages, to commemorate K10D winning the Camera Grand Prix 2007 Award in Japan. With only just 150 PENTAX K10D Grand Prix Packages available in the UK, the extremely collectable cameras with an exclusive new colour scheme, will be sought after by photography enthusiasts across the country.

This one-off PENTAX K10D Grand Prix Package features gold finished PENTAX branding, the K10D logo and mode dial, complimented by a new dark brown rubber coating on the body and battery grip. In addition, the Package includes a specially designed leather camera strap with award logo and Camera Grand Prix lettering, also in gold. The PENTAX K10D cameras in the Grand Prix Package also include the latest Firmware (ver.1.30) and each camera is identified with a serial number, which is specific to the Package.

The PENTAX K10D is a 10.2 effective megapixels digital SLR camera that offers high-precision, high-resolution images. It incorporates an array of advanced, user-friendly features including the PENTAX-original SR (Shake Reduction) technology. It was awarded the Camera Grand Prix 2007, in recognition of its technological sophistication, outstanding specifications, and reasonable price, ensuring it is affordable to photographers around the world.
